

Your Digital Learning Home Page

The screenshot shows a digital learning home page with several key features and annotations:

- Navigation: A top navigation bar includes a "Library" dropdown menu (annotated with "Use the dropdown menu to navigate through topics") and a "My Profile" dropdown menu (annotated with "Adjust your account settings, or reset your password"). Below these are links for DASHBOARDS, REPORTS, USERS, ASSIGNMENTS, CONTENT, LICENSES, and SETTINGS.
- Search: A central search bar with the placeholder text "Search for courses, videos, books, and audiobooks" is annotated with "Search for courses".
- Resume Learning: A section titled "Resume Learning" (with a "View all" link) displays five course cards. The first two are "DCICT (Registration)" and "DCAC9K (Registration)", both labeled as "LINK" and "Register for" by "Firefly". The other three are "Developing a Growth Mind-set", "Microsoft 365 Fundamentals: Microsoft...", and "Cisco: A Beginner's Guide, Fifth Edition", all labeled as "COURSE" or "BOOK".
- My Playlist: A section titled "My Playlist" (with a "View all" link) shows two channel cards. The first is "PMP®" and the second is "Discover our amazing library of Courses, Videos, Books and Audiobooks" with a "Browse Library" button. A callout box points to the "ITIL® Service Design Processes" course card, highlighting the "Add to playlist" option in the three-dot menu (annotated with "When you are in a course, click on the three dots and 'Add to playlist' so it is easy to find when you login later").
